

London Contemporary Dance School

Academic Board

TERMS OF REFERENCE 2020-21

Purpose

The Academic Board is the senior academic committee of London Contemporary Dance School (LCDS). It has oversight of all academic provision through the regulatory framework and quality management systems and processes. The Academic Board provides assurance to the Chief Executive and Accountable Officer and the Board of Trustees that our academic strategy is fit for purpose and approves new additions and revisions to academic policy. Minutes are shared with the Board of Trustees and with Senate for the Conservatoire for Dance and Drama (CDD).

In exercising its responsibility, the Academic Board has regard to

- the Vision and Mission and 5-year business plan of The Place,
- external benchmarks of standards and quality in higher education,
- the Conservatoire for Dance and Drama strategic plan
- student experience and feedback
- requirements and artistic expectations of the dance profession and the development of Contemporary Dance as an art form.

The Academic Board is responsible for:

1. Directing academic strategy and reviewing and approving the Annual Programme Reviews and accompanying Action Plans to support curriculum development and enhance the quality and relevance of programmes for a diverse student population
2. Developing the School's research capability and output to demonstrate research-led teaching and emerging dance pedagogies
3. Considering matters raised by student representatives and to consult with students through their representatives on any proposed changes to published programmes of study or to the regulations and /or terms and conditions in place at the time of their initial registration
4. Considering the resources needed to support programme and academic development
5. Approving new programmes of study, which demonstrate a clearly identifiable market, for recommendation by CDD and the validating universities.
6. Approving new and revised policies and procedures ensuring they comply with both CDD guidelines and those of the validating universities.
7. Confirming annually the list of the School's programmes to be delivered, to both the validating universities and to CDD
8. Reviewing the requirements placed on external examiners by the University of Kent and University of the Arts London (UAL), and signing off on responses to external examiners reports and to monitor progress in order to fulfil responses in a timely manner
9. Planning and preparation for external review by validating, accrediting and other external bodies; signing off on final submissions; considering the reports from such bodies and ensuring appropriate action is taken in response to any recommendations

10. Confirming annually the number of students registered on validated programmes to both the University of Kent and to CDD for HESA returns
